

Make a Joyful Noise: We are Better Together
MUSIC THERAPY WORKSHOP
for Families and especially for KIDS with Special Needs
Come listen, learn, play and save children's lives
Traditional West African Dance, Drumming, Flute
Church of the Holy Cross
Middle Street near the Water Tower
Saturday, November 3 - 10:00-12:00

Nkabom Music and Dance Ensemble will be performing. They are collaborating with MUSC and Gethesamani Circle of Friends to raise funds to build a center for education and skills training of street children, children orphaned due to HIV/AIDS and women in Okurase, Ghana. Nkabom members are incredibly talented and are wonderful human beings. Come meet them, talk to them and hear them. Kids are encouraged to participate! See www.projectokurase.org

****SPECIAL GALA EVENT OCTOBER 27 at Francis Marion Hotel****

---

Nkabom is an energetic collective of multitalented, international performing artists from diverse music and dance backgrounds.

---

ALL FUNDS GO TO BUILD THE CHILDREN'S CENTER IN GHANA

Questions? Eve Spratt-Edwards 876-0508, Cindy Swenson 452-1310

****See October Charleston magazine, and www.projectokurase.org for additional details and information about the Oct 27 Dancing, drumming, photo exhibit, documentary GALA event.