

The 2008 Lowcountry Buddy Walk Down Syndrome Education Week September 8-12, 2008

A Community Educational Project presented by the Down Syndrome Association of the Lowcountry (DSAL)

Media for use in print or video

Articles and information on the DSAL website may be helpful. You may copy this material and ask your school to include it in school wide newsletters, e-mails, etc.

Examples include: from <http://www.dsalowcountry.org> homepage, go to “About” then “In the News” for local articles about the Down Syndrome Association of the Lowcountry, the Lowcountry Buddy Walk and Down syndrome.

From <http://www.dsalowcountry.org> homepage, go to “Resources” then “Education Faces” for Keys to Successful Inclusion. Written by Dr. Cynthia P. May, Ph.D., the “FACES” program gives you step by step information about how to ensure successful inclusion in your school using the following key points:

- Feeling of belonging
- Appropriate behavior
- Coordination with parents
- Educational goals
- Support for teachers